Correlation between number of insertions in a family and significance in Kruskal test